Distinctive Fourth of July Songs by State

This chart shows songs for each state that are played proportionally more on the Fourth of July than during the rest of the year

This map shows the most popular Fourth of July songs in each state

TIME

In a move that the Founding Fathers could have only dreamed of, Spotify is helping celebrate Independence this year with a map of the United States that shows which songs got more play on July 4 last year than any other day in 2013.

How did this map come into fruition? Paul Lamere, director of developer platform at Spotify subsidiary Echo Nest, began by combing through playlists that users titled "Fourth of July" and then compared those songs to what they listened to during the week prior.

You never forget it. Not your first fire. To a firefighter, the first fire is like a police officer's first collar, a lawyer's first jury trial, a fisherman's first tuna. It becomes chiseled into your memory in big block letters, rolled out and dusted off for a lifetime of reminiscence. Take 15 minutes and read this gripping tale of NY firefighter Jordan Sullivan's first fire.

A tip of the baseball cap to an American hero

The Lima News

Back in a time when baseball was our nation's No. 1 sport, many of the game's brightest stars and future Hall of Famers dropped bats and gloves and went to enlist, including Hank Greenberg to Bob Feller and Ted Williams. But there's another player, whose admittance into baseball's Cooperstown shrine would only be guaranteed if he purchased an admittance ticket. But what Moe Berg may have lacked in baseball prowess, he more than made up for with his love of the game, as his many teammates would attest, and also in both intellect and service to America.

Spokane's EMS Rescue Task Force helps get treatment to victims of mass shootings quickly

JEMS

The current standard fire/EMS response to the active shooter is to stage in a secure location until police mitigate the threat and secure the area to create a scene safe for fire/EMS operations. Unfortunately, while waiting for a secure scene, those injured inside the building aren't receiving care and are dying from their injuries. The RTF concept involves placing paramedics in a forward position during an active shooter.
